

Blinkit Grocery Sales Dashboard

Objective

Analyze Blinkit's grocery sales data to identify top-performing products, outlet performance, customer preferences, and sales trends for better business decisions.

Tools Used

- Power BI
- Excel
- DAX

Key KPIs

- Total Sales: ₹1.20M
- Average Sales: ₹141
- Total Items Sold: 8,523
- Average Rating: 3.9/5

Key Insights

- Supermarket Type 1 generated the highest sales (~₹787K).
- Tier 3 locations contributed the most sales (~₹472K).
- Medium-sized outlets generated the highest revenue (~₹507K).
- Fruits & Vegetables and Snack Foods were the top-selling categories.
- Low Fat products contributed approximately ₹776K in sales.

Dashboard Features

- KPI Cards
- Sales by Item Type Analysis
- Fat Content Analysis
- Outlet Size & Location Analysis
- Outlet Type Performance
- Interactive Slicers & Filters
- Detailed Sales Matrix/Table

Business Questions Answered

Question

Which outlet type generates maximum sales?

Which location performs best?

Which outlet size is most profitable?

Which product categories sell the most?

Answer

Supermarket Type 1

Tier 3 Locations

Medium Size Outlets

Fruits & Vegetables, Snack Foods

Which fat content category performs better?

Low Fat Products

What I Learned

- Data Cleaning in Power BI
- Creating DAX Measures
- KPI Development
- Interactive Dashboard Design
- Business Insight Generation
- Data Visualization Best Practices

Resume Project Summary

Developed an interactive Power BI dashboard using Blinkit grocery sales data to analyze sales performance, outlet efficiency, product categories, and customer ratings. Created DAX measures for key KPIs and designed dynamic visualizations that provided actionable business insights, helping identify top-performing outlets, locations, and products.